The report for the month of November, 1914, is quite similar to the November report of last year; 1 more enrolled, but the average attendance is 12 more. The per cent of attendance in the buildings is as follows: High school, 99 per cent; Center Graded, 96 per cent; Forest Avenue, 89 per cent; First District, 87 per cent; Sixth Ward, 84 per cent; Colored High, 90 per cent; Colored Sixth Ward, 70 per cent. The month has been characterized by very quiet, though effective work. Nothing has transpired during the month to hinder effective work. The one case of scarlet fever in the First District seems to have been so completely isolated that there is no recurrent attack. According to the directions of the Board, the supplementary readers and primary supplies that on last year were subjected to contagion were destroyed. We believe and earnestly hope that there will be no further outbreak of scarlet fever. W. J. CAPLINGER, Superintendent Public Schools.

DON'T WORK TOO HARD (7) WHY WORK AT ALL?

"Don't work too hard," is the admonition given by Dr. William C. Woodward, president of the American Public Health Association, at a meeting in Washington this week of the Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. Blessed be Dr. Woodward! Looking back at that order given by one Captain John Smith of Pocahontas fame, when he made the rule that the colonist who did not work should not eat, the proposition looks good and sensible. But when the proposition comes close to home, it loses some of its romantic flavor.

Naturally, it would be difficult to define where too hard work begins and where work at all ends. However this may be, it is some consolation to know that what ails most of us is hard work, although there may be some of us who never have suspected it.

"We must avoid excessive labor, physical and mental," is the advice, which simply emphasizes the dangers we run who strive for a living. However, we appear to be between two fires on this last proposition. Most of us will no doubt discover that if we do not overstrain some in our physical labors, we may be reduced to the necessity of working our wits overtime, and other people, too, in order to get enough of the necessities of life to make us really enjoy living. And if we do not in this age work our brains up to about the limit, we may be forced to the dire necessity of being compelled to work with our hands as thus put too strong a tax upon our muscles.

The cards seem to be stacked against us either way we take look at them, and upon calm and unprejudiced consideration of the recommendations given, we are forced to the conclusion that such advice can really be followed only by the "idle rich," who are suffering, however, from just the opposite, lack of healthful work, and so there we are.—Charleston (W. Va.) Mail.

MASONS

Plan a Gigantic Fund For Relief of Dependents of Fellow-Member Victims of War.

(Monday's Cincinnati Enquirer.) The greatest relief movement in the annals of American Freemasonry was launched in Cincinnati yesterday when the highest national and grand officials of the fraternity met at the Sinton Hotel and formed the Masonic War Relief Association of the United States. The donations of the 1,580,000 Masons in this country will be distributed in the grief-stricken zones of Europe on Masonic principles, regardless of nationality or belief, through the medium of the world-wide affiliations of the order. Shiploads of foodstuffs and clothing will be sent and other means taken to relieve distressed Masons, their families as well as other worthy persons.

JOHN BRECKINRIDGE HILES WANTS LIEUTENANT GOV. EMBROIDERY.

(Augusta Chronicle.) The political pot has begun to boil, as it were. Senator J. B. Hiles of Foster is receiving encouragement from every section of the state to enter the primary next August as a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, and it is quite likely that he will heed the call. Senator Hiles is well known over the state, having served two terms as Representative from this county, and is now serving a four-year term as State Senator. If the Senator gets in this race he will make an active campaign and a warm contest may be expected.

Dr. Joseph A. Blake, the New York surgeon who for some time has been living in Paris, and Mrs. Catherine Alexander Duer, formerly Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay of New York, were married in Paris.

ALLIES CLAIM IT'S ALL OVER BUT THE FIGHTING

Russian Shells Have Set Fire to Austrian City of Cracow.

London, November 30.—Russia's forces, it is reported unofficially today, have at last reached Cracow, the Austrian fortress in northwestern Galicia, near the boundaries of Russia and Germany. An Italian correspondent at the front states that Cracow is now being bombarded by heavy Russian siege guns and that one of the suburbs is in flames.

Russian Army in Germany.

London, November 30.—Germany acknowledges that the Russian northern army has penetrated into East Prussia to a distance of 15 miles southwest of Gumbinnen, which is about 20 miles west of the German border.

In Belgium, says the French official statement, it is the allies and not the Germans who are now on the offensive. These two points stood out in today's news from the battlefields of Europe.

Paris, November 30.—At Ypres the allies are meeting with exceptional success in their offensive movement.

Trenches have been abandoned by the Germans at a number of strategic points south of Ypres, and these have been occupied by the British and French troops as fast as the invaders fell back.

It is now safe to say even with the main issue as yet undecided, that the French and British have won the battle of the big guns which has been in progress with few interruptions for the past month.

Furious German Attacks Fail to Break the Line of Allies.

Paris, November 30.—German forces in great strength renewed their attacks on the allies' positions to the north of Arras today, but the onslaughts were futile, according to the official statement issued from Bordeaux tonight.

England Demands Norwegian Port for Naval Base.

Christina, November 30.—England has demanded from Norway for use as a naval base the city and harbor of Christiansand, on the southern coast of Norway, such use to continue only during the war.

Aeroplane Is Interned in Danish Territory.

London, November 30.—An Exchange Telegram dispatch received from Copenhagen says a German aeroplane carrying two officers landed in Danish territory yesterday and at Esbjerg. Both officers were interned and the aeroplane was secured and placed in the care of an armed guard.

Turks Are in Flight—Russians Victorious.

ALMOST INCREDIBLE.

With the greatest of wars in Europe precipitating foreign issues upon us every day and complications in Colombia and Ecuador, seriously invoking the Monroe Doctrine, not to mention hell-broke-loose in Mexico, Mr. Bryan, having taken his east in Florida, is about to go on a speaking tour. Rollin Kirby hits it off admirably in his cartoon which we reproduce elsewhere in this issue of the Courier-Journal. Meanwhile, word comes to us from Washington that certain Democratic Senators from southern states propose to read the riot act to William Jennings when he resumes his sojourn in the National Capital. In the last number of the Commoner this item appeared:

"The active opposition to Woman Suffrage is to be found in the brewery, distillery and the saloon; and when this fact is known those who are associated with the Anti-Suffragists will inquire the cause."

All but two of the Democratic Senators in question are on record as opposing woman suffrage. Several of the Senators hail from "dry" states and are as hostile to the saloon interests as they are to woman suffrage. It is the announced purpose of at least three Senators, the Washington correspondents tell us, to call the attention of the Senate to Mr. Bryan's editorial attack upon them and demand a retraction or an apology.

Probably nothing will come of it; but what is to be thought of such a Secretary of State at such a time as this?—Courier-Journal.

THE NEW LADY MACBETH AND HER SLEEP...LANKING SCENE.

Dreaming that she was packing her possessions for a long journey, Miss Dossia Silverthorn arose in the night, cut off her long plait of flaxen hair and put it in her suitcase, where it was found the next morning.—Brashear (Mo.) Comet.
